

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

DATE: January 24, 2008

Local Training Organization Elects New Board

Albuquerque, NM – Diana Spendlove., M.A., CPLP, assumes the role of President for American Society of Training and Development (ASTD) New Mexico Chapter.

Spendlove, Assistant Vice President of Training and Employee Development for New Mexico Educators Federal Credit Union, has more than twenty years of business experience in business training and professional development; she recently completed the Certified Professional in Learning and Performance, CPLP credential.

Other Board members include Leah Kier, past president; Leah Boetger, president-elect; Dan Valles, vice president finance; Mary-Bernadette Garza, board administrator, Marianela Gish, vice president membership, David Civetti, vice president communications; R. Raphael Chalvarian and Hazel Mella, co-vice presidents programs; Lindsay Robinson, vice president of Santa Fe geographical interest group (GIG), and Jim Hughes, member at large.

ASTD-NM is the state chapter of the world's largest association dedicated to workplace learning and performance professionals. The group meets on the first Thursday of every month. For more information and a program schedule see www.astdnm.org.

###